1. Parties

Identifies seller and buyer with full names and ID details.

2. Schedule of items

Lists every item sold with serial numbers and identifying details, forming the definitive record of what the deal includes.

3. Condition per item

Notes the state of each item and any defects, with the buyer confirming inspection or acceptance of the described condition.

4. Ownership and authenticity

The seller confirms owning each item free of third-party claims and that descriptions of brand and authenticity are honest to their knowledge.

5. Price and payment

States the total price, per-item allocation where agreed, and the payment method and dates.

6. Delivery and risk

Sets who delivers or collects, when, and at what point responsibility for loss or damage passes to the buyer.

7. As-is and returns

Confirms whether the sale is final or whether any short return window applies to specific items.

8. Included documents

Lists certificates, original receipts, and warranty papers handed over with the items.
